Burkhart Signs NFL Free Agent Contract

Former Dodge City Community College football player, Kyle Burkhart, has signed a rookie free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks. The Kinsley native just completed his eligibility at the University of Southern Mississippi, where he was a two-year letter winner. Burkhart started in all 13 games for the Golden Eagles at right tackle including an appearance in the New Orleans Bowl.

At Dodge City Community College, Burkhart was a two-time All KJCCC selection. During the 2006 season, Burkhart earned honorable mention status as an defensive lineman. Before his sophomore season, Burkhart made the switch to offensive line and was a 2nd team All-KJCCC selection at tackle.
